

Reader Reviews

Would you like to write a review telling other patrons about some of your favorite books?

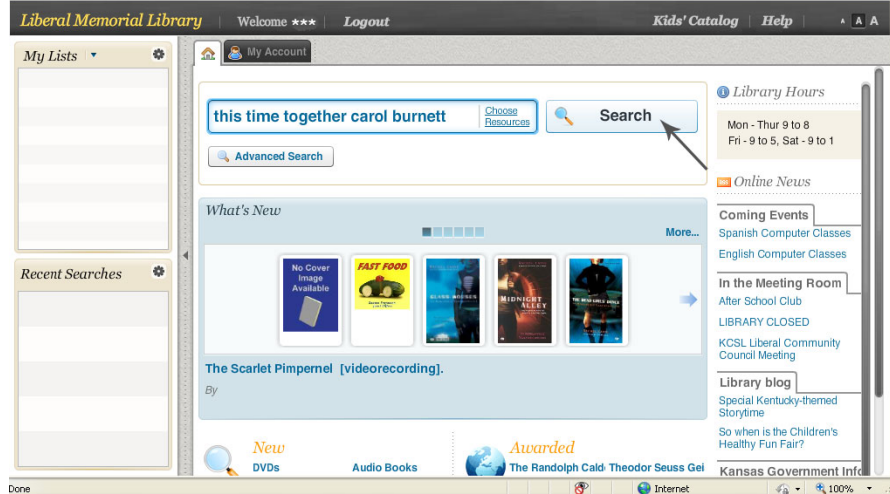

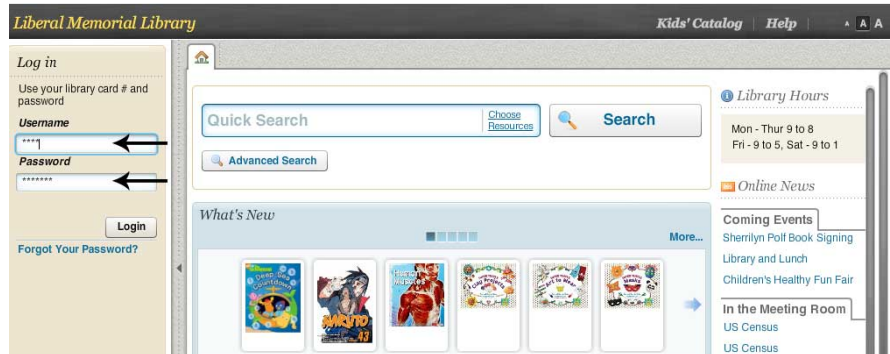

Go the library's catalog

<http://www.lmlibrary.org/catalog>

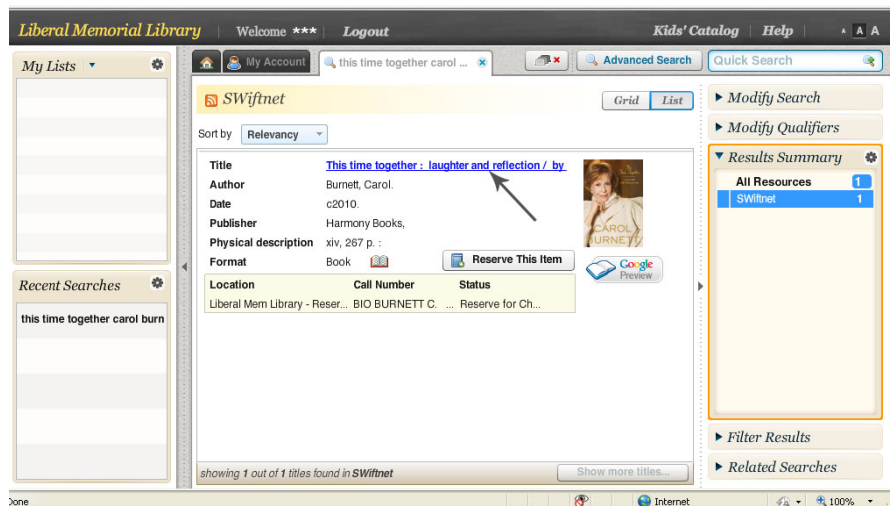

Log in and search for what you want to review.

See the instructions for logging in and searching if you need help.

In this search I'm looking for "This time together" by Carol Burnett.

Once you've found the item you're looking for, click on the title.

Scroll down and click on  Review This Item.

The policy will only be displayed the first time you write a review.

Please read it before clicking on  I Agree to continue.

Rate the item 1 to 5 by clicking on the star.

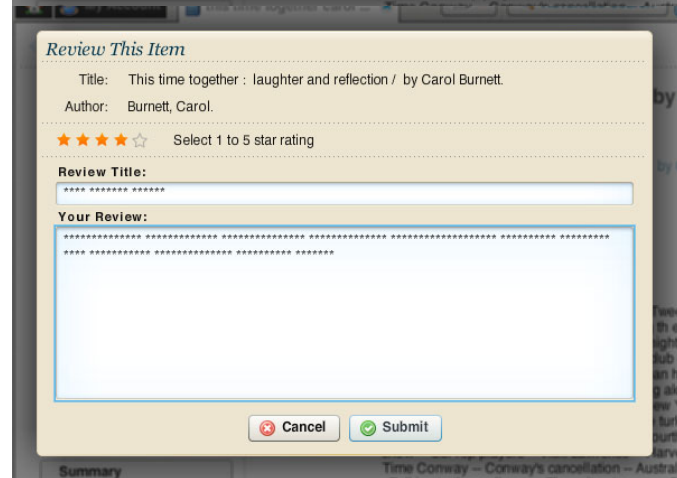

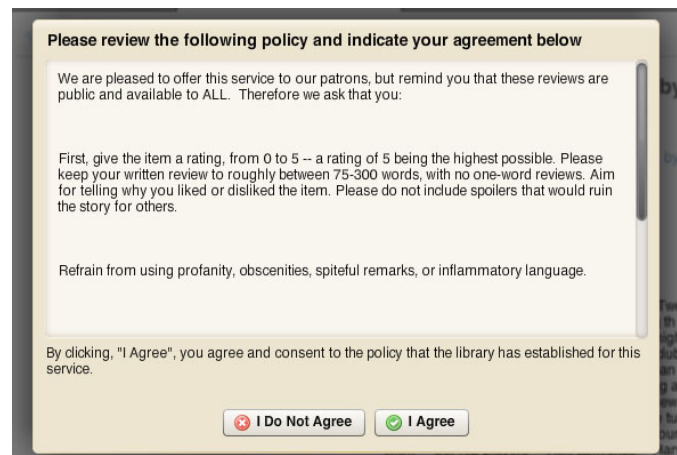

Make a title for your review and write your review in the box below. Click Submit when finished.

Please remember that anyone can see your reviews. We ask that you:

Keep your review to between 75-300 words, with no one-word reviews. Please do not include spoilers that would ruin the story for others.

Refrain from using profanity, obscenities, spiteful remarks, or inflammatory language.

Do not include your phone number, email, or home address or any other personal information.

You can see your review by clicking on the Review tab on the right of the screen.

If you see a review from someone else that you think is inappropriate, please click on  Flag inappropriate to let the staff know.

If you wish to edit your review just scroll down and click on  Review This Item again.

If you wish to go back to the list of results click Back to Results above the title

Below the book cover and to the right of the location, the item now shows how many reviews it has and the average rating.
